

NEW HAVEN THREATENED WITH ANTRUST SUIT

McReynolds Will Determine Course
After Meeting of Road's
Directors To-Day.

ONE WAY TO PREVENT ACTION

If Legislation Enacted by State of Massachusetts Is Accepted Fight in Courts Will Be Averted—Brief in Civil Case Ready to File.

Washington, July 15.—Attorney-General McReynolds is waiting only for the outcome of a meeting of New Haven Railroad directors in New York before determining the course the government will pursue in untangling the New Haven system.

This meeting is expected to consider legislation recently enacted by Massachusetts affecting the sale of Boston and Maine Railroad stock now held indirectly by the New Haven. The road's executive committee has expressed unwillingness to attempt to dispose of the Boston and Maine, which gives Massachusetts an opportunity to purchase the stock. If the directors also decline, there is little doubt that a suit will be filed late this week in New York to have the stock sold.

ANXIOUS FOR DIRECTORS

Administration officials do not deny they would like to see the New Haven directors accept the Massachusetts legislation and prevent an antitrust suit. One argument advanced in negotiations with the New Haven has been that business all through New England will be seriously affected by an antitrust suit.

It seemed almost certain to-night that the Department of Justice decides to prosecute criminally any officials of the New Haven, who were in power when the alleged combination in restraint of trade was built up, the cases were laid over for a grand jury term after to-morrow's meeting if the directors act adversely. The department's brief in the civil case has been ready for a long time, and information to support the request for judgments has been in official hands for weeks.

ANOTHER DAY'S FIGHT ON JONES NOMINATION

The consolidated companies controlled 55 per cent of the assets of zinc trade of the country, there had been no combination in restraint of trade.

Near the conclusion of the examination, the record shows the following: "Senator Hirschberg, who was a member of the committee, was curious to know whether any views on monopoly were in harmony with the opinion of the country, which was long opposed to anything tending to centralize or monopolize business."

"Mr. Jones: I have not the slightest hesitation in answering any questions along that line that may be asked as to what my views may be as to general policy. I am thoroughly in accord with what I believe to be President Wilson's policy in destroying monopoly."

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Alpha, Mich., July 15.—Seven miners in the Balken mine lost their lives today, when their drills went through a rock wall. Hirschberg, who was a member of the committee, was curious to know whether any views on monopoly were in harmony with the opinion of the country, which was long opposed to anything tending to centralize or monopolize business.

WANT READJUSTMENT BEFORE COURTS ACT

Important Bondholders of Missouri-Pacific Decide to Force Hands of Gould Interests.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, July 15.—Important bondholders of the Missouri-Pacific Railway Company, it was learned today, have decided to force the hand of the Gould interests in bringing about a readjustment of the outstanding securities before it becomes necessary for the courts to take action. A member of one of the bondholders' committees said the bondholders would not wait until the fall for a readjustment of obligations. He added that the time had passed when security-holders would wait for the courts to take action before there was a readjustment. He said the directors had already had plenty of time in which to formulate a plan. Formation of the bondholders' committees was followed today by the creation of a protective committee to represent stockholders. This committee consists of J. N. Wallace, chairman, J. Horace Hurd, Frederick Straus, Albert H. Wiggin and Robert Winsor.

At the offices of the Missouri-Pacific it was said that there is no chance of a readjustment for the property in the immediate future. A director said that the company had more than enough money in bank to take care of about $250,000 interest due on underlying bonds. He said that it was too early to say what would be done with regard to the September 1 interest. He said that the work of readjusting securities would be taken up until the fall, owing to the absence of many directors on vacations.

REORGANIZATION PLANS NECESSARILY HALTED

New Phase of Claffin Company Failure
Greatly Complicated

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

New York, July 15.—Business men who are anxious to bring about a reorganization of the H. B. Claffin Company, admitted today that the situation had been complicated by discovery of the fact that twenty-three of the subsidiary stores were financed by the Claffin Company. A director of the company said that the discovery of the fact that twenty-three of the subsidiary stores were financed by the Claffin Company, admitted today that the situation had been complicated by discovery of the fact that twenty-three of the subsidiary stores were financed by the Claffin Company.

The Henssey Corporation, of Butte, Mont., it was learned, was not the only Claffin subsidiary subjected to this unusual business practice. A factory store, owned by the Claffins, it is said, was similarly treated, and several other subsidiaries are in the same category.

A thorough investigation into this phase of the failure has now been started, and plans for a reorganization must necessarily halt until definite information is at hand as to just how far this practice was carried on.

Information was at hand today also that in many cases notes were issued, presumably against bills receivable, and thereafter the money was used for the general promotion of the Claffin stores. It has become known also that loans were secured from New York banks by the Claffin Company within two or three days of the collapse of the company.

The charge that the concern unlawfully engaged in the banking business was aired before Judge Learned Hand, in the Federal District Court, today when argument was heard on a motion to compel Receivers Martindale & Juillard to return to Emanuel Shebar, manager of Aberdeen, Miss., $16,836.25, being the balance of a deposit of $10,000 he made with the concern on January 17, 1914. Shebar claims that he was urged by representatives of the Claffin Company to deposit his money with the company, which he did on the understanding of 4 to 2 per cent interest, which he would not get if he carried out his intention of depositing in a regular bank.

Halibut Trust Indicted.

Seattle, Wash., July 15.—The Federal grand jury today returned indictments under the Sherman antitrust law against the members of the so-called Halibut trust, which controls most of the halibut caught in the North Atlantic, North Pacific and Bering Seas, and sold in the United States.

PARTISANSHIP CHARGES WILL BE INVESTIGATED

Offensive Hostility to Administration on Part of Civil Service Commission.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, July 15.—President Wilson is having investigated charges of offensive partisanship and hostility to the administration on the part of the Civil Service Commission, as a result of complaints made by Senator Kern and Representative Cullip, of Indiana. The commissioners are John A. McIlhenry, president; Charles M. Gallo-way, and Herman W. Craven. Democratic members of the House charge that the board consists of two Bull Moosemen and a Democrat. McIlhenry has long been a close personal friend of Colonel Roosevelt. Acts of the board, it is contended, prove a desire to promote the interest of Republicans in the government service, and prevent the appointment and promotion of Democrats.

Senator Kern and Mr. Cullip reported to the President reprehensible conduct on the part of the investigators, and alleged unfair action by the Civil Service Commission in the filing of the postmaster at Merom, a small town in Indiana.

The Republican postmaster there reported because of age. A civil service examination was held to fill the vacancy, and Cleveland H. McKinley, a Democrat, was highest in average. His competitors are Republicans. Representative Cullip commended to Postmaster General Burleigh the appointment of McKinley.

Two post-office inspectors, Republicans, investigated McKinley. They reported adversely on him to the Civil Service Commission. He was charged with bad habits and unfitness, and leading citizens of Merom were quoted as sustaining the report. When notified of the charges in the inspectors' report, three citizens sent affidavits to Mr. Cullip denying they had accused McKinley in any way, and testifying to his good character and fitness for office.

Civil Service Commissioners failed to reject the injurious report when confronted with the affidavits. Senator Kern and Mr. Cullip then carried the case to the President, leaving with him the affidavits as proof of the charges. They had made against the commissioners and the postal inspectors.

SUFFRAGETTES ATTACK SCOTTISH SECRETARY

Intervention of His Butler Probably Saves Him From Sound Thumping.

London, July 15.—A dozen suffragettes were required today to remove from the Marlborough Street Police Court two kicking, clawing, screaming suffragettes, who earlier in the day had attempted to hang the Rt. Hon. Thomas McKinnon Wood, Secretary of State for Scotland. But for the intervention of his butler, it is probable the secretary would have been soundly thrashed.

The secretary was leaving his residence when a woman rushed up, horsing in hand, exclaiming: "You Scottish pig! If you don't stop the forcible feeding of women, we will smash you!"

The militant lashed him across the chest, but before she could deliver a second cut, the butler, standing on the steps, threw her to the ground. He then tackled a second woman who was shouting: "Let me get at the Scotch pig!"

The police took both women to the police station, where they were searched. On one was found a decomposed egg, labelled "Refusing fruit!"

In the court the women gave their names as Lannette Wallace and Bertha Watson. They were fined 20 shillings each, but refused to pay, and were sent to jail for fourteen days.

BATTLESHIP IN PORT WITH NAVAL RESERVES

Norfolk, Va., July 15.—With several hundred naval reserves on board from the District of Columbia, North Carolina, New Jersey, Delaware and Pennsylvania, the battleship Rhode Island came in from sea to-day, and steamed up Chesapeake Bay. The Rhode Island had been on a cruise to Bermuda with the reserves.

Tomorrow, the reserves will have target practice with the Rhode Island's four-inch guns off Tangier Sound. The cruiser Montgomery, with Maryland reserves on board, is taking on ammunition at the navy yard. She will sail to-morrow for Tangier.

SAY BOARD HAS FACILITATED BUSINESS

Five surviving members of the Committee on Charter Changes, which formulated the Administrative Board plan, united yesterday in issuing a signed statement to the voters of the city, commending the board's administration of the business entrusted to it. The statement was prepared by Dr. E. M. Reade, a member of the Charter Changes Committee, and signed by Gilbert K. Pollock, chairman of that committee; Henry W. Bountree, F. Z. Morris and himself; C. V. Norrdith, the other surviving member of the committee, was engaged, and could not personally sign the statement, but directed Dr. Reade to sign it for him.

The statement followed: "To the citizens of Richmond: In view of the varied statements which have been made concerning the conduct of the business of the city by the Administrative Board, we, the surviving members of the Committee on Charter Changes which formulated the plan and recommended the establishment of our present form of government, unite in justice to the present members of the Administrative Board, who should make known, that, from our knowledge of what has been accomplished, the conduct of the business of the city has been greatly facilitated."

The committee was composed of eight members. The following, who served with the five who signed the statement, are dead: John J. Lynch, J. F. Hurt, and W. E. Leidy.

HOBSON, HIRSCHBERG AND MCCARTHY ARE FAVORITES
Considering the intense interest in today's election, the hotel lobbies and downtown corners last night showed only a limited amount of betting activity. An unofficial tabulation of the wagers that were offered and a few that were made showed Hobson, Hirschberg and McCarthy to be the favorites. Odds that Mr. Hirschberg would win a place ranged all the way from 100 to 10 to 1, and McCarthy was constant at the last figure. There was little money offered on any one to lead the ticket.

Hobson money was offered in considerable volume at 100 to 100, with few takers. Most of the bets at this rate were that he would win a place, with a few that he would lead the ticket. Even money was offered on McCarthy to end the race.

The betting took little stock in the chances of either Mann or Blair to win a place. Bets on those candidates were chiefly local in their nature, taking the form of wagers on the size of the vote that will be polled by each. It was practically conceded on the curb that the two winners will come from the three candidates around whom the betting centered.

WILL RECEIVE RETURNS
AT CITY AUDITORIUM
The polls will open this morning at 5:02 o'clock, and will close at 7:29 o'clock to-night. Returns will be received as usual in the City Auditorium, where the City Democratic Committee will meet at 8:30 o'clock to-night to canvass the result. The outcome of the election, it is believed, will be known at a comparatively early hour—perhaps by 10 o'clock at night.

The Doctor's Advice

by Dr. Lewis Baker

Miss "Constance" asks: "I am very thin and bloodless and want to increase my weight about 50 pounds. Please tell me what method to pursue?"

Answer: A regular and persistent use of three-grain hypo-nutrient tablets will usually produce an increase of weight by adding nutrition and building up the flesh tissues. Scores of patients have reported increases of from 10 to 40 pounds from the use of these tablets. Full directions come with each sealed package.

Mrs. X asks: "In hot weather my scalp itches terribly, is feverish and a great amount of oily dandruff is present. What is good for this?"

Answer: First shampoo the hair and then apply plain yellow amylol about once a week as per directions. This relieves the itching, overcomes the dandruff and makes the hair beautifully glossy and vigorous. Obtain in 1-oz. jars of druggists.

Mrs. "Annie H." writes: My husband is surely afflicted with some kind of disease. He has become weak and suffers with headache and pains in his back and groins. He is like a rheumatism. His ankles swell and his feet seem to be tired all the time. Some days he has chills and no appetite. Please prescribe.
